

COMPANY PROFILE

At the port of Hamburg lies the gateway to the world of global travel shopping: Gebr. Heinemann is one of the most important players in the international Duty Free market. Founded in 1879, the family-run company has always remained independent, despite being faced with an ever-changing market environment – and hence right from the beginning has been writing the travel retail stories of tomorrow. The company's mission is to live and breathe service and to create added value in an inspiring and emotional way.

* Preliminary group turnover of Gebr. Heinemann and affiliates. Consolidated Gebr. Heinemann turnover according to HGB: 3.0 billion euros.

Supervisory Board

Claus Heinemann (Owner)
Gunnar Heinemann (Owner)

Executive Directors

Stephan Ernst (Finance, IT)
Peter Irion (Distribution)
Kay Spanger (Purchasing, Logistics)
Raoul Spanger (Retail, HR)

Business Areas

Distribution: 1,000 customers (including airports, airlines, border shops, cruise liners and ferries) in over 100 countries

Retail: The company operates more than 330 Heinemann Duty Free & Travel Value Shops plus various fashion-label boutiques and concept stores at 79 international airports in 29 countries. It also operates over 60 border shops under the Travel FREE retail brand and 30-plus shops on 17 cruise liners

OUR HISTORY

2017

The Heinemann and James Richardson joint venture wins the Duty Free contract at Ben Gurion Airport in August.

2016

Gebr. Heinemann opens the world's largest Arrival Duty Free shop in Oslo (4,000 square metres) and the extension of the company's headquarters in Hamburg (K5) opens its doors.

2015

With Sydney as Gebr. Heinemann's latest success, the company is now solidly established as a global leader in the international travel retail market.

2014

To keep pace with its global expansion Gebr. Heinemann opts to build a second logistics centre in Erlensee (near Frankfurt).

2009

Move into Asia by securing the first concessions for brand label boutiques and setting up a subsidiary in Singapore.

2008

The Heinemann Duty Free' retail brand identity is unveiled.

2003

During the 2000s, successive concessions for Duty Free shops at major European airports lead to the construction of a logistics centre in Hamburg-Allermöhe to enhance storage capacity.

1999

Gebr. Heinemann launches 'Travel Value' for the whole European market.

1979

Claus and Gunnar Heinemann, representing the fourth generation of the Heinemann family, join the company in its centennial year and significantly expand activities on the international travel retail market.

1972

The company opens its first shops at Frankfurt Airport, a key retail site in the success of Gebr. Heinemann.

1969

Gebr. Heinemann acquires first concessions for Duty Free shops at Cologne-Bonn Airport.

1958

In Frankfurt, the first Duty Free counter opens at a German airport; operated by the state, the goods are supplied by Gebr. Heinemann.

1953

Icelandic Airlines becomes Gebr. Heinemann's first airline client, later followed by Lufthansa.

1911

One Heinemann generation succeeds another, overcoming tough times while successfully expanding the family business activities.

1879

A long and successful journey begins as Gebr. Heinemann is founded by Carl and Heinrich Heinemann.

